"Situated in an exclusive residential area in the hills above Vence with panoramic views over the sea, this attractive villa with a private heatable pool is well positioned to discover the countless gems hidden along the Cote d'Azur including quaint hilltop villages, gourmet restaurants, wine routes, Provencal markets, art galleries, splendid beaches and hiking trails".

Sleeps up to 8 adults + 2 children.

The house is easily accessible and is therefore ideal for excursions in the area, for example to the very beautiful medieval artists' village of Saint Paul de Vence. A popular village among artists and art lovers. There are also many art galleries located in the atmospheric streets of the village. The famous Fondation Maeght museum is very much worth your while. Built on hillside, the villa's grounds are terraced and the accommodation arranged over several levels. The layout of the bedrooms makes this villa particularly suitable for 2 families on holiday together.
