"This grand waterfront luxury estate with 5 units, 2 swimming pools and tennis court surrounded by lush olive groves in Agia Pelagia is the ultimate destination for large parties seeking an authentic and peaceful Greek holiday experience on the island of Corfu".

Formerly the site of an ancient olive-press the grounds this substantial property sits in are large and spacious with the accommodation arranged over 5 independent, traditional-style units for a total of 24 guests. Three of those are beach-houses, there is also a garden villa and a secluded romantic studio for two. The estate has been conceived, designed and decorated to host and serve efficiently multi-generational families, including the physically challenged, which makes it ideal for large family reunions and special events – the property does feature a charming 16th century chapel, after all!
