Villa Rotunda is situated in the newest residential area within the acclaimed golf resort of Vale do Lobo and affords spectacular views over the Ocean, with a sandy beach just a few steps away. Large windows and floor-to-ceiling glass doors enhance the impact of the sea view and the light streaming into the property, giving it an airy feeling throughout. Additional benefits are a private garage, a lovely garden and heated pool (a supplement for the pool heating is required). Each room is decorated to a very high and modern standard. From the garden you find steps leading to a path to Garrão beach and that is just a few steps away. Outside you can also find a barbecue and sun loungers, along with external seats for perfect days and nights, and the rooftop terrace offers more outdoor seating and a jacuzzi. On the lower level there is a games room, TV room, a bar and wine cellar.?
