"Tucked away in a quiet residential area close to the picturesque fishing village of Bidart and only five minutes' drive from Biarritz, this superb luxury home with infinity pool and sauna provides elegance and comfort for a memorable holiday between the Atlantic ocean and the Basque mountains".

The open plan space is tastefully decorated in a minimalist style with the four individually appointed bedrooms reminiscent of the natural surrounding. Guests will find only top quality furniture and state-of-the-art equipment in this family villa whose real focal point is the 180-degree panorama over extensive fields and the Pyrenees mountains in the distance. Bidart and Biarritz are only a handful of minutes' drive from this villa offering water sports, restaurants, shops, traditional cafes, woods with cycling paths, horse riding and much more.
