“An exquisite villa within walking distance of the beach with the services of a chef included: pure luxury,”

This is a very special property: secluded in a private estate, just a few minutes walk from a sandy cove with crystal clear water. This architectural delight of a villa takes full advantage of Cycladic design, internal patios linking different parts of the villa whilst the interior is bright with spacious living areas.

The décor is modern but with a nod to the traditional; wooden ceilings and floors are the canvas to modern appliances and furnishings. There is a professional style kitchen and roomy dining area: your private chef will easily cater for your party, providing classic Greek dishes and more.

The property is divided between a main house and two independent guest rooms.

The outdoor areas are exceptional : covered outdoor dining and a welcoming separate sitting area below hand made lanterns mean lingering evening meals or just settling in for an afternoon nap are all possible!

The beach at Trypiti is about a three minute walk, Faragas is two kms. The nearest village is Alyki, some five kilometres distant.

Paros airport 6 kms.
