"This delightful Algarve villa with a traditional look and modern interiors sits in a lush mature garden and features a lovely pool and surroundings in the Quinta do Lago area, within easy reach of the beach, restaurants and some of Europe's best golf courses".

This modern two-storey villa is set in a landscaped garden. The split-level living/dining room has a marble dining table and comfortable seating around a fireplace. From here large glass doors open onto the garden and pool terrace. The kitchen faces the interior garden which features a banana plant. The garden is mostly laid to lawn with a rockery at the front full of lush and colourful plants. There is a built-in barbeque and seating area next to a poolside shower and there are shaded areas on the rear lawn under tall pine trees. The large double bedroom on the first floor has its own large terrace with a barbeque.
