"Along the Comporta stretch of coast, a short walk from the beach and a scented pine forest, lies this chic, cabana-style seaside retreat with distant ocean views and long heatable pool immersed in generous sized gardens - an ideal setting in which to enjoy your relaxing Portugal holiday with families and friends".

The property occupies a large plot of land comprising a well maintained garden featuring pine trees, sand dunes and a long pool. The accommodation is arranged over three separate buildings linked via decked pathways and terraces. Guests can easily explore the area riding the bicycles provided for them at the villa and reach the shops in the nearby village or the beach in minutes, for an opportunity to practise surfing or horseriding. For fine dining and shopping Comporta village is located just 11 km away.
